

What time is it?
Dinner time!

Dinner time
with Jesus again.
Dinner for
everyone!
His band of buddies are all there.
They are all wondering what amazing thing Jesus might do at this dinner.

They remember the time there was no dinner and Jesus took the few loaves and couple of fish
from a young lad.
And when Jesus blessed and broke the bread It filled a crowd of thousands with more than enough.
Dinner time with
Jesus again.
Dinner for everyone!
from Jesus' own hands.

They remember a time when Jesus was at dinner with the top of the town A woman arrived and And breaking the jar open filled the room with beautiful perfume And cried more than enough tears to show how sorry she was for her wrongs Jesus said, “There’s more than enough forgiveness for everyone from God’s own heart.”

They remember a time when Jesus invited
himself to dinner at the home of little Zak,
the Tax-taker.

And when they shared dinnertime Little Zak stood up and broke his money bags open

And filled the village with enough money to show he was following Jesus good ways of justice.

More than enough
money for everyone,
when the rich remember everything comes from God's own hands.

What time is it?
Dinner time with Jesus again.
Dinner for
everyone!
His band of buddies
are all there.
What time is it?
Party time –
it's holiday week Party time for everyone!

The celebration remembers a time
Long long ago
When the Jewish people were slaves in Egypt
And they broke out into freedom
Freedom for everyone!
Following God's ways though facing death and danger.

They ate a meal
With flat bread
And roast lamb
And lots of wine
They celebrate and remember God's great rescue of their people Rescue for everyone!

They remember and celebrate freedom.
Even though there is not enough freedom now.

What time is it?
Dinner time
with Jesus Dinner
for everyone!
His band of buddies
are all there.

He picks up the bread And blesses it with thanks to God
He breaks it into pieces
And says
this is for everyone.

And Jesus
picks up his cup
And says
this is for everyone

Listen buddies,
Share this around:

I am facing danger and death Soon my body will be broken
like this bread.

I will suffer hurt.
Even though
I am God,
I will feel all the things that humans feel.

I will suffer but
It is for everyone.

But this is not the end.

We will share
dinner again.
Dinner for
everyone.

I will come alive.
God has more than enough
Love and power.
More than enough
hope.
Hope for everyone.
More than enough
Life to share.
Life for everyone!

What time is it?
Time to go
Says Jesus.

His band of buddies wonder. They remember all they have seen Jesus do in his life. It has been for everyone.

And so they wonder if his death will be the same.
Somehow
for everyone.

Jesus buddies still remember today
In churches everywhere
every week
Everyone
Eats bread
Drinks wine
To remember Jesus life and death and life is for everyone.

Freedom for everyone.
Rescue for Everyone.
Hope for everyone.
